

Gender and the Economic Crisis: Impact and Responses

15-16th September 2009, Oxfam House, Oxford

Workshop Participants

1	Aphichaya Nguanbanchong	Regional Policy & Research Coordinator, Oxfam GB in East Asia
2	Bina Fernandez	Lecturer, School of Politics and International Studies, Leeds University
3	Caroline Sweetman	Editor, Gender & Development
4	Celine Charveriat	Deputy Director of Advocacy and Campaigns, Oxfam International
5	Daniela Rosche	Policy and Advocacy Advisor, Gender Justice Group, Oxfam Novib
6	Deborah Johnston	Lecturer, Department of Economics, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London
7	Diane Elson	Professor, Human Rights Centre, Essex University
8	Fiona Hodgson	President of the Conservative Women's Association, Member of the Oxfam Association
9	Ines Smyth	Global Gender Advisor, Oxfam GB
10	Jennifer Cohen	University of the Witwatersrand, South Africa
11	Jenny Enarsson	Regional Gender Advisor, Latin America and the Caribbean, Oxfam GB
12	Jessica Espey	Research Officer, Poverty and Public Policy Group, Overseas Development Institute
13	Kathryn Dovey	Programme manager, Global Business Initiative on Human Rights
14	Liz Cooke	Assistant Editor, Gender & Development
15	Polly Trenow	Coordinator, UK Gender and Development Network
16	Rachel Moussie	Policy Officer, ActionAid
17	Richard King	Economic Justice Researcher, Oxfam GB
18	Robert Fox	Executive Director, Oxfam Canada
19	Ruth Pearson	Head of Centre for Development Studies, School of Politics and International Studies, Leeds University
20	Sam Bickersteth	Head of Programme Policy, Oxfam GB
21	Shawna Wakefield	Gender Justice Lead, Oxfam International
22	Sibel Selcuk	Division for the Advancement of Women, Department of Economic and Social Affairs, United Nations
23	Sue Turrell	Executive Director, Womankind
24	Sutapa Choudhury	Economist, Growth Team, Growth and Investment Group, Department for International Development
25	Thalia Kidder	Senior Global Adviser - Gendered Livelihoods, Oxfam GB